WAGNER'S REVIEW

Morning Grain Letter,

Chicago, Ill., July 10 .- No rain fell on Thursday in the northwest or central west. Canada was dry, with temperatures of 90 to 92. Temperatures in many sections of the northwest and corn belt rose to 94 and 96. There are private reports of recent Kansas and Missouri rains. Locals evidently played for a warm map this morning, and if an early corn bulge much selling Kansas City1,600 1,200 1,000 should result. The corn bulge of the sharp advance swept the locals along. The newspapers do not give any adequate reason for the big corn bulge. The August corn par adds July 9.-Folowin gare the whole about 150,000,000 to the report if still 80@8014; No. 2 hw, 80% @8112; No. sale quotations on the local market around 85 condition. Chicago corn stocks of 2,500,000 should be well reduced this month. July and September ber corn should hold most of its upturn until rains. If no rains, December corn will advance. Most of locals suggests it has a fair chance to touch 60 cents. Shrewdest say the December corn upturn was due to overdoing of the early June corn break. Wheat is a bulge sale. Bulges are expected. Canadian dry fears are probable.

Up to July 10 black rust receives have 12,000,000 wheat sold to go out Rhubarb, dozen bunches.15c via Galveston that will never see a terminal. Oats should follow corn for leaves wheat in a bulge-sale posipresent. On the northwest oats rust tion.

Liverpool wheat is firm and our wheat should hold for a few days. We have excellent corn reports from Kansas and reports of 90 per cent for wheat in southeastern North Dakota Corn map is favorable to early bulge.

Liverpool Situation.

Liverpool, July 10 .- The late rally 322,000 Missouri Pacific 10 American spring wheat caused yesterday's sellers to turn buyers with of-fers light. At 1:30 prices were 1/2 to 1/4 higher than yesterday. The coninent continues to absorb freely of Corn opened firm and 14 higher on American firmness and unfavorable American weather reports. Later there declined 1/4, but this decline was recovered with the continued firmness in September, which advanced a further % after the opening. Unfavorable weather in Argentina, firmer plate offers and scarcity of spot stimulated shorts in September to cover freely At 1.30 the undertone very firm with prices 1/2 to 1/8 higher with September leading.
